

No Sir! It Isn't All Over Yet!

"DIVORCE? JUST A PIPE DREAM!" Because Marilyn Miller went to Equity Ball with Ben Lyon, an enterprising scribe started story that she was going to divorce Jack Pickford and wed Lyon. But Marilyn, who's shown above in affectionate scene with hubby, today branded the divorce yarn just "a pipe dream." (Photo Graphic.)

SAYS SHE SPURNED HALL BRIBE. That she turned down offer of $2,500 to keep "mouth shut," was testimony of Mrs. Mary Demarest (center) in Hall-Mills trial yesterday. Offer, she said, came from Mrs. Hall's private sleuth. Photo shows witness leaving court with mother and detective

KEPT COOL IN HOLD-UP. The most placid individuals in the place when five thugs shot up Aywan Night Club, at 2110 7th Ave., in vain hold-up try yesterday were the charming entertainers shown above. But how could they be anything but cool—in such costumes! (Photo Graphic.)

Marriage Made in Heaven
